

COASTAL BCM LEADERSHIP TEAM APPLICATION

First of all, thank you for prayerfully considering leadership with BCM. I firmly believe God wants to do incredible things on the campuses of CCU and HGTC, and I also believe He wants to use college students to reach college students with the life-changing message of Jesus Christ. Coastal BCM is all about Jesus and we believe that He not only has the power to change lives, but also that He wants to change lives through you. I really cannot express to you how excited I am that you are praying about serving in this capacity. Please let me know if you have any questions as you filter through the process and please know that I am praying for you. As we look toward leadership, I am NOT seeking perfect individuals – rather I am seeking people who have a heart to serve with humility and who have a growing passion for God to be exalted on this campus. I have included a little information below about the purpose and the vision of BCM as we move forward. Please consider your heart and motives, and if your desires align with this please continue with the application.

BCM at CCU and HGTC exists to fulfill the mission of Christ on our campus and in this community. God calls us to glorify Him by MAKING DISCIPLES, and we believe in seeing Christians grow in their faith toward maturity, and we also desire to see nonbelievers introduced to the person of Jesus Christ. We want lives to be changed by the power of God and for His glory! You and I are not capable of this in our own power, but as we consistently depend on God, we see Him move mightily in our lives and through us to see this community impacted with the Gospel!

On the next page, I have included expectations of a leader with Coastal BCM. Please consider these prayerfully, and we will walk through them together after you turn in your application.

All applications are due by Friday, April 15th

COASTAL BCM LEADERSHIP EXPECTATIONS

We desire to see lives changed through the ministry of BCM, and being a part of leadership in BCM is an incredible opportunity as we pursue the mission of God. At BCM, we are committed to living with moral and ethical values that are consistent with the Bible and standards appropriate for the community we live in. We expect the students who lead at BCM to live according to those values in response to God's call for His people to live righteously. Because we desire integrity in our lives, these are expectations that are befitting a leader at BCM, and by accepting a leadership role at BCM, I will submit myself to the following expectations:

- To serve as a leader with BCM, you will have the following expectations:
  - Expect you to attend a local church (BCM isn't a substitute)
  - Expect you to attend leadership meetings, BCM meetings, and other significant events including Converge, retreats, and planning times. This means BCM main events take priority and you will need to plan on being on these unless something arises.
  - Expect you to be a growing Christian who is pursuing God daily in your own life and following His Lordship
  - Expect you to seek to make disciples on this campus as a priority
  - Expect you to desire to set an example of Christ in all areas of life – I recognize this means I might abstain from some activities, which cause others to stumble and also means I will limit my personal freedoms. I will not willfully choose to continue in sin and I will try to live a life that is above reproach.
  - Expect you to do everything to the glory of God and commit to responsibility in all tasks
  - Expect you to keep an open line of communication with David, which means I will seek to stay in contact with David each week.

- Below are some of the leadership responsibilities you can apply for:
  - Tuesday Night Planning
  - Outreach
  - Bible Studies
  - Prayer
  - Communication
  - Community Service
  - Fellowship
